

This is an opportunity to meet with our International Partner guests to listen and share. Hear about the educational environments in their contexts as they explain from their perspectives their visions and aspirations around the term 'partnership' with Lutheran Education Australia and Australian Lutheran schools.