Explore State Library of Queensland’s learning spaces and examine very early archival material from convict-era and early settlement days in Brisbane. Learn how access these historical treasures and discuss how to bring the resources alive in your classroom in the 21st century.

If you have one, please bring your mobile device to this session.

This session will be hosted by Samantha Harrington McFeeter of the State Library of Queensland.