TARRINGTON LUTHERAN PRIMARY SCHOOL

Tarrington Lutheran Primary School is situated on the south side of Hamilton in the Western District of Victoria. The School was established in 1853 and has been functioning continuously for over 165 years. During the past 10 years the school has experienced steady growth. The school enjoys spacious grounds and playing areas, has a tennis / netball court, a large oval, extensive play equipment and grassed and shaded areas.

Tarrington Lutheran Primary School operates under the auspices of the Lutheran Church of Australia, and at the local level maintains strong ties with St. Michael's Lutheran Congregation, Tarrington. As a caring Christian School, it is well respected in the community for its values taught through a progressive and dynamic curriculum. Each student is valued and respected and given encouragement and opportunity to reach their full God-given potential.
