CLASS DEVOTIONS

LIFE is a curriculum for Christian Studies. Classes may have regular times of devotions in addition to Christian Studies lessons. LIFE does not attempt to suggest the purpose or form of class devotions.

But, just as what happens in curriculum areas such as English, the Arts, and Society and Environment can be integrated with Christian Studies, so what happens in class devotions may sometimes be integrated with Christian Studies.

Class devotions can be integrated with Christian Studies units by:

- using in devotions elements which are developed in Christian Studies lessons (eg litanies and artwork)
- focusing on the same themes and/or stories
- using common songs (see the following lists).

MUSIC FOR CHRISTIAN STUDIES AND CLASS DEVOTIONS

Music is a traditional element of worship. Songs can express feelings through both melody and words. The words of Christian songs are valuable for teaching Christian truths and for providing a way of responding to the truths.

Instrumental music can be used in Christian Studies and class devotions to create atmosphere and to express emotions.

Many students in Band B are enthusiastic about singing. Make use of this enthusiasm. Some may be reluctant to sing. Do not let this keep you from using music in either Christian Studies lessons or class devotions.

You may choose to make singing optional and use music in ways that do not require all students to sing (eg listen to recorded music).

Encourage and make use of the abilities of any Band B students who are studying music.

Even non-musical teachers can use music in the classroom. They may be able to call on school assistants, parents, other teachers or older students for help. There is also a wide range of electronic helps available including audio tapes, CDs, videos, and keyboards with basic rhythms and even tunes pre-programmed.

Band B students may enjoy up-beat 'adult' contemporary music as well as music written for children.

Teachers need to be tuned in to the contemporary music students hear on the airwaves and to make use of such music whenever it is appropriate in the classroom.

Most Christian music is written by Christians and is intended to be sung/performed by people who believe what the words say. Teaching songs is, in effect, putting words in students' mouths. This has both a positive and a negative aspect: it can help believers express their belief but it can force non-believers to say/sing what they do not believe.

For this reason it is important for teachers to be

- familiar with the words and to know if the words truly express what they as Christians believe and want to say;
- sensitive to the implications of expecting students to sing such songs if they do not believe the words.

SONG RESOURCES

The number of Christian songs available for use in schools is constantly growing. The following list has been compiled as a sample of the kinds of songs which can be used in Christian Studies lessons and in class devotions related to LIFE Concepts.

The sample is limited to songs that relate specifically to LIFE Concepts and that are found in the selection of resource books listed below. The list is not meant to be comprehensive.

BOOKS INCLUDED IN THE SAMPLE

WRITTEN AND/OR COMPILED FOR ADULT WORSHIP

All Together series, Openbook Publishers, music and word editions and OHTs available, as well as tapes of selected songs.

All Together Now, 1980
All Together Again, 1983
All Together Everybody 1991
All Together OK, 1996

Hillsongs series, Hillsongs (Australia) available as music books which include OHT masters, CDs and some on video. The list of books is continually growing. Our sample comes from:

All things are Possible, 1997
Friends in High Places, 1995
God Is in the House, 1996
People Just Like Us, 1993
Stone's Been Rolled Away, 1994
The Power of Your Love, 1992

No official church hymnals have been cited. Traditional hymns in the sample are found in other books, particularly Sing to Jesus.

WRITTEN AND/OR COMPILED FOR CHILDREN

God Gives series, Rodan Publishers in association with the Uniting Church in Australia, 1982, 1988, 1991. Available as tapes and music books. Our sample comes from volumes 1, 2, and 3. Volume 4 concentrates on Christmas, Easter, baptism and communion.

Gospelling to the Beat: two volumes, each with fifty Christian songs for use in outreach with children, 1993 & 1997, Scripture Union. Selection of the songs available on CD.

Great Songs for God's Kids: arranged for children's voices by Larry Haron, Word Music, 1994. Includes a range of children's songs, contemporary choruses and hymns. Resources include word book, accompanist edition, split track cassette and CD of 50 of the 130 songs.

Jennie Flack: Just Life (Australia) tapes and books containing activities, teaching guide and guitar chords.

Clean Drains and Wellington Boots, 1992
Jibes 'n' Vibes, 1985
Mischief and Miracles, 1994
Mugwumps & Important Things, 1981
Snookles, 1982

Kids Classic Collection: (81 Classic songs for Kids) arranged by Sue Martin Gray, created by Mike Gay

Sing-a-long Songbooks (with the Donut Man) series, Integrity Music, Inc. 1993, three songbooks and fourteen Just-for-Kids tapes.

Songbook 1, #1–78 with five tapes
Songbook 2, #79–141 with five tapes
Songbook 3, #142–191 with four tapes

Sing to Jesus, Openbook Publishers, 1983. Traditional hymns and songs for children available in music and word editions

The World Is Full of Smelly Feet, 1997 Kevin Mayhew

The following song compilations have not been included in the sample, but are among the many other resources which are available to teachers. Some may be out of print.

FOR ADULT WORSHIP

Praise and Worship Resource Christian Music; Volumes A, B and C plus supplements; music editions, word only edition, OHTs and tapes.

A good theme index is included which will help teachers choose songs to fit LIFE themes.

Scripture in Song, available in music edition, word-only edition, OHTs with tapes of selected songs.

Volume 1: Songs of praise, 1979

Volume 2: Songs of the kingdom, 1981, 83

Volume 3: Songs of the nations, 1988.

Volume 3 has an excellent Scripture index, which will help teachers find songs reflecting specific Bible passages.

FOR CHILDREN

Bible Songs to Tunes You Know by Daphna Flegal and Linda Ray Miller, 1997 Abingdon Press. A collection of 'piggyback' songs with words set to tunes that the teacher and children already know, such as Old MacDonald had a farm and Twinkle, twinkle, little star.

Highly recommended for Band A. Not included in the list because the majority of songs are retelling of Bible stories, not thematic songs.

Kids Praise series of children's musicals from Maranatha. Music with tapes and music books. Many individual songs are collected in Psalty's Super Songbook.

Mary Rice Hopkins and Co Maranatha Music, songs for very young children. Video and tape

Sunday Sing Along Maranatha Music, four volumes with tapes, 1986, 1987, 1989, 1990

Sing a Song of Scripture, 100 Scripture songs for children, 1986 Lillenas Publishing Co, book and split-channel tapes.

IN THE FOLLOWING LIST

Songs designated Band A are particularly appropriate for younger students in Band A.

Songs designated Band C are generally suitable only for the older students in Band C.

GOD GATHERS CHRISTIANS TO WORSHIP HIM

Most Christian songs are worship songs and may be appropriate to use in conjunction with a Worship unit. Songs in this list are generally about worship and about the God whom Christians worship.
