

DIFFERENT PRAYERS FOR DIFFERENT PRAYERS

Have a look through some prayer books and pick out three quite different prayers. Complete the following for each prayer/

What is the title of the prayer Where did you find it? What is the prayer about? What concerns does the writer of the prayer have about the topic? What is the style of the prayer (formal, informal, traditional, contemporary, descriptive, serious, funny . . .)? What image or picture of God (eg powerful, helper, compassionate, provider) do you get from the prayer.	What is the title of the prayer Where did you find it? What is the prayer about? What concerns does the writer of the prayer have about the topic? What is the style of the prayer (formal, informal, traditional, contemporary, descriptive, serious, funny . . .)? What image or picture of God (eg powerful, helper, compassionate, provider) do you get from the prayer.	What is the title of the prayer Where did you find it? What is the prayer about? What concerns does the writer of the prayer have about the topic? What is the style of the prayer (formal, informal, traditional, contemporary, descriptive, serious, funny . . .)? What image or picture of God (eg powerful, helper, compassionate, provider) do you get from the prayer.
--	--	--

In your book write down the prayer you consider to be your favourite from the ones you have read and explain why you like it.

Read the Lord's Prayer and the meaning of the different sections. Write in the bubbles below where the parts of the Lord's Prayer fit into life.

RELATIONSHIPS

PHYSICAL NEEDS

SPIRITUAL NEEDS

OUR PROTECTION

A SAFE WORLD