

Become a member of the ALC Library

Australian Lutheran College (ALC) is the tertiary education provider of the Lutheran Church of Australia. The ALC Library has approximately 92,000 books and 14,000 bound volumes of periodicals. The ALC Library subscribes to 230 current periodicals and there is also a small collection of media items. Ebooks can be accessed directly through the library catalogue.

Employees of Lutheran schools and early childhood services are entitled to FREE membership of the ALC Library

Whilst physically located at 200 Ward Street in North Adelaide, the ALC Library serves ALC students as well as the wider academic community throughout the whole of Australia.

Membership

Pastors, lay workers, staff of congregations and schools/early childhood services of the Lutheran Church of Australia can apply for membership at no charge. Licensing limitations restrict access to some resources for the exclusive use of University of Divinity staff and students. ALC eResource access is currently being considered. Contact ALC Library if you have any queries.

Use your library card / library barcode to:

- borrow ALC books and ALC ebooks
- view and renew your loans via My Account
- place holds
