LEA SERVICE AWARD

Sue Conway

For service to Lutheran education 1996 – 2023

The Lutheran Church of Australia thankfully acknowledges the faithful and committed service of Sue Conway to Lutheran education for 27 years.

Sue Conway is recognised for her exceptional contributions to Immanuel Lutheran College, marked by over 20 years of unwavering dedication and boundless commitment. Sue's enduring love and care for the entire Immanuel community, especially her exceptional devotion to students facing illness or injury, has left an indelible mark.

Sue's association with Immanuel Lutheran College spans an extended period, during which she consistently demonstrated a profound passion for the well-being and success of her students. Her compassion and empathy towards those grappling with health challenges have served as a beacon of inspiration to all College staff. Sue's tireless efforts in providing comfort and support to students in times of need exemplify the true spirit of compassion within the College community.

Beyond her compassionate heart, Sue's dedication to detail, diligent work ethic, and unwavering commitment to the College have played an instrumental role in shaping the institution's success. Her meticulous attention to administrative tasks and steadfast commitment to ensuring that every aspect of the College operates smoothly have been invaluable.

As we bid farewell to Sue, it is with deep gratitude and admiration for her service. Lutheran education is genuinely indebted to Sue for her faithful and selfless dedication to the College's mission, values, and students. Immanuel wishes Sue well in this new season of life, confident that her legacy of compassion, dedication, and diligence will continue to inspire all.

Sue's faithful and conscientious service to her Lord and the Lutheran Church of Australia, through her service in Lutheran education, has been outstanding and is humbly recognised through this award.
