

2023 Professional Development in Service-Learning & Community Engagement

Educators interested in enhancing their knowledge and understanding of service-learning are invited to join our learning intensives offered in 2023:

- Addressing contemporary issues confronting our world and education
- Participatory and collaborative online learning that is practical, substantiated by research—and earns postgraduate credit points while you learn.

Semester 1, 2023

Intensive 1: MICRO-UNIT

A Concept-based Approach: Enriching Service-Learning & Community Engagement

About: An inquiry of particular service-learning concepts (e.g. innate human dignity, stewardship, story, boundary crossing); how concepts may be experienced in practical ways in an educational setting.

Dates: Sat 18 & Sun 19 March
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $480 (accredited 4 point unit)

Semester 2, 2023

Intensive 2: FOUNDATIONAL UNIT

Service-Learning and Community Engagement: Who is My Neighbour? (DE8041L)

About: Investigate different types of community partnerships; develop audit tools to guide selection of local and overseas service-learning & community engagement partners.

Dates: Sat 19 & Sun 20 August
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $1441 (accredited 12 point unit)
or $480 (accredited 4 point unit)

Intensive 3: MICRO-UNIT

Justice and Advocacy: Service-Learning & Community Engagement's Building Blocks

About: Social Justice and Service-Learning are linked. We explore these links as well as discovering what a Justice-oriented approach to Service-Learning and Community Engagement means. The importance of 'advocacy', 'voice' and 'whose voice' will be a significant aspect of the exploration..

Dates: Fri 29 & Sat 30 September
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $480 (accredited 4 point unit)
